

Virtuous models of solidarity, inclusion and decentralized cooperation

Rome, 16th October 2017

The initiative, organized by AICCRE, is part of a series of decentralized cooperation promotion activities, with the aim of demonstrating the importance of EU policy instruments in its multiple forms, with actions involving local administrators and their citizens. The working day will allow an exchange of experience and planning among a hundred mayors coming from different countries who, through co-operation, will be able to build new sustainable cooperation projects.
